

Context: We played the video game “Mission US: For Crown or Colony” in class, (www.mission-us.org) a role-playing game about Patriots and Loyalists in Boston, MA around the time of the Boston Massacre in 1770.

Patriot Colonists who did not support the British parliament and king

Loyalist Colonists who supported the British government and king

Role: In the video game you, Nathaniel Wheeler, encounter many people living in Boston in the 1770s.

Task: In a writing task of several paragraphs, choose two characters that are patriots and two characters that are loyalists. Tell about these characters. How do you know that they are patriots or loyalists?

Include a brief intro telling about the game and a brief conclusion that gives your opinion on using this game to learn about the

Due Date: _____

Context: We played the video game “Mission US: For Crown or Colony” in class, (www.mission-us.org) a role-playing game about Patriots and Loyalists in Boston, MA around the time of the Boston Massacre in 1770.

Patriot Colonists who did not support the British parliament and king

Loyalist Colonists who supported the British government and king

Role: In the video game you, Nathaniel Wheeler, encounter many people living in Boston in the 1770s.

Task: In a writing task of several paragraphs, choose two characters that are patriots and two characters that are loyalists. Tell about these characters. How do you know that they are patriots or loyalists?

Include a brief intro telling about the game and a brief conclusion that gives your opinion on using this game to learn about the

Due Date: _____