

Direct Instruction On Vocabulary Sheet

Rights

noun

legal ability to have or obtain something or to act in a certain way

Direct Instruction

In notebook

Obligation

an action that someone HAS to do

Power

an action that someone CAN do

Model:

Inquiry Question:

What powers/obligations did the states and national government have under the A. of C.?

Read Over Articles of Confederation

As we read we will annotate the articles thinking about:

- What powers do the state governments have?
- What powers does the national government have?
- What obligations do the state governments have?
- What obligations does the national government have?

Fill the graphic organizer with the Article numbers and the powers or obligations of the state governments or national governments.