

Direct Instruction

The United States is a country of laws.

The Legislative Branch makes laws.

The Executive Branch makes the laws happen.

The Judicial Branch inspects to see if the laws are supported by the Constitution.

Direct Instruction

Legislative - having the power to make laws.

From LATIN - legis latio - to make a law.

Direct Instruction

Cornell Notes is a specific way of organizing information in your notebook. It is best for taking notes during a lecture.

Direct Instruction

Cornell Notes is a specific way of organizing information in your notebook. It is best for taking notes during a lecture.

At the bottom of the page, write a quick summary of all that has been noted after class.

